Stylish Models--

Exclusive styles millinery is an important thought among women.

These Corsets are necessary to have such a figure as graceful as this.

Red Fern... $3.00 to $6.50
Nemo... $3.00 to $5.00
Warners... $1.00 to $3.50
Lucille... $1.00 to $4.00
R & G... $1.00 to $3.50

All the Corsets above mentioned and one style in some make may please you better than another. Always the best for the price you pay.

The Fitting and Selling of Corsets may seem rather a commonplace thing yet it is not a profession or art—if you please? Is not the latter modeling figures through the corset that shall be beautiful, and are they not building for health, since the corset, if properly supporting the figure, is a healthful garment?

A saleswoman in our corset department is no longer an order-taker, a saleswoman or demonstrator. She is an artist—an expert in her technique; and every woman who leaves her hands is a finished product as far as it is possible for human ingenuity and art to corset her figure a la mode, without sacrificing comfort.

Our corsetieres have attained this art through instruction from the associate designers of Redfern Corsets. They like to fit the Redfern models because they know that you will be so pleased with the result. If you have never tried a Redfern, why not come to us today?

Note—Our Corsetiere is personally known to our trade.

Successful Sale. Notwithstanding the rain and clouds of yesterday afternoon a very successful sale of aprons was held in the parish house under the auspices of the Parish Aid Society of Christ Episcopal church.

Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes presided as treasurer and scattered through the room were a number of tables filled with fancy and useful aprons in all designs, which met with ready sale. They were in charge of Mrs. J. J. Duncan, Miss Page, Mrs. B. P. Holden and Mrs. Henlen. Many Easter novelties found ready sale at the charge of Mrs. B. C. Hess, Mrs. McGee, Miss Frances Moore and Miss Edna Stewart. The home made candy was in great demand and was arranged most attractively on a table at which Mrs. Harry Lee Campbell, Miss Pauline Musgrave and Mrs. Henry Alexander responded to the many purchasers. Master Robert Patterson was in charge of a varied and pretty collection of Easter cards. An attractive tea table with its pretty appointments enhanced by pink shaded candles in silver holders was well patronized, and all afternoon was filled with many groups of tea drinkers enjoying a fresh brewing of tea daintily served with tea biscuits, wafers and cookies. Miss Garrard and Mrs. Robert R. Wilson presided and were assisted by Misses Geraldine Wallis and Herietta Bailey in serving the many patrons in attendance.

Enjoyable Reception. Complimentary to the new members of the congregation a very enjoyable reception was given last evening in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South.
Quite a number of guests were in attendance and addresses were made by the Rev. W. H. Foglesong in behalf of the church; J. W. Walden representing the Epworth League; Mrs. Harry M. Wade, the Woman's Missionary Society, and L. D. Johnson, the Sunday school, followed by vocal solos rendered by Mrs. Garrett and Miss Thomas. An instrumental number was given by Miss Henderson with readings by Miss Ruttenburt and Miss Nutter. At 10 o'clock the women of the congregation served delightful refreshments.

Second Tea. The second of a series of teas given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church was held yesterday afternoon in the church.
A delightful musical and vocal program was rendered by Miss Jonia Smith and Mrs. Homer Williams, and later refreshments were served. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. George D. Smith, Mrs. M. Morris, Mrs. W. A. Fletcher and Mrs. Sallie Long, assisted by Mrs. E.

F. Robinson, Mrs. Kramer and Mrs. William Heavener, who presided at the coffee table. The affair was most enjoyable and known as the "Get Acquainted" tea.

Sewing Circle Entertained. Mrs. Albert Powell, of Adamston, very pleasantly entertained the Ladies' Sewing Circle of that place last evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. Fancy needle work and a guessing contest were diversions of the evening. Mrs. Fred a McFarlin was the lucky contestant and received a beautiful prize and Mrs. Joseph Purcell was awarded the consolation prize. The hostess served delicious refreshments which were greatly enjoyed.

Dorcas Society. The study of South America will be continued with Miss Frances Stone as leader at a meeting of the Dorcas Society which will be held in the home of Miss Maude Hall on West Main street at 7 o'clock this evening. All members are asked to be present.
